Chapter 1 by Guilliana and Rachel

Note: This isn't your average love story. Just wanna let you know. ;)

"Honey," my mom knocked on the door, "Get up now. Your food is going to get cold!" I groaned and answered, "Be there. Just going to take a shower." I heard her head downstairs, so I stood and stretched. I went to my room bathroom and washed my face. I washed my face with cold water and gently wiped my face dry. Then I heard a bang from my patio. I thought it was just another bird, so I didn't bother. Then there were more bangs. "What in the world?" I thought as I opened the blinds. "Ahh!" I yelled, jumping. It was a guy, I know he goes to my school, his name is Calix. I opened the door and motioned him to come in. "What are you doing here?" I sharply whispered. He smiled then pointed to a ladder and answered, "I need you to be my girlfriend." I was shocked by the words he just said. I shook my head no. "Calix-" I stammered, but before anything else left my mouth, he kissed me. His warm, soft lips were enough to make me return the kiss. "Got it," he asked, "Rachel?" I nodded. He winked at me then said, "See you at school, girlfriend." He walked to the patio then climbed down the ladder.

What I didn't know was what would happen at school that day would change me forever. And not in a good way.

Chapter 3 by Guilliana and Rachel

While I was walking through the hallway at school, girls were giving me disgusted looks.

I tried my best to not look back at them, but they just made disgusted looks and sounds.

I finally found Calix, and when I did, I grabbed him by the hand, took him to one of the empty hallways, grabbed him by the shirt, and held him against the lockers. "Do people know about us dating?" I asked in an angry whisper. Calix was sweating and turned red, I already knew the answer.
